2022 SAGE-GROUSE SEASONS & RULES September 17 - October 31

A Sage-Grouse Tag is now required to hunt sage-grouse in Idaho. A hunter may harvest only as many sage-grouse as he or she has legal tags for in that season.

Sage-grouse tags will be available for purchase at 10AM on August 1, on a first-come, first-served basis until tag quotas are reached. Sage-grouse tags are distributed across twelve hunting zones with a tag quota for each zone, and tag purchase is specific to that zone. A hunter may purchase two sage-grouse tags in any zone.

Tags are available at any Fish and Game license vendor, by telephone (1-800-554-8685) or the Fish and Game online license vendor website: GoOutdoorsIdaho.com.

Identify Your Target! Is it a Sage-grouse or a Sharp-tailed Grouse?

Sage-grouse and sharp-tailed grouse can occur in the same areas in south-central and eastern Idaho. Hunting seasons for these species overlap. The sharp-tailed grouse hunting season is October 1 to October 31.
